CMG added Winston Churchill: Walking With Destiny to Cannes slate

30 April, 2012 | By Jeremy Kay

Ed Noeltner's Beverly Hills-based sales company will screen the Moriah Films documentary narrated by Ben Kingsley during the market.

Winston Churchill: Walking With Destiny highlights the former British Prime Minister's life before he came into the political spotlight, his early opposition to Adolf Hitler and his support for Jews under threat from Nazism.

Richard Trank wrote, directed and produced and Rabbi Marvin Heir also served as producer.

CMG will also offer for the first time Moriah Films' It Is No Dream: The Life Of Theodor Herzl, about the father of the modern state of Israel. Trank wrote and directed.

"We are excited to be presenting two of Moriah Films' latest productions which continue to explore the impact the Jewish people have made on the world," Noeltner said. "Both films paint a fascinating story on an important chapter in 20th Century history."

"All of us at Moriah Films are very pleased to be partnering once more with Edward Noeltner and his team at CMG," Trank said.

Winston Churchill: Walking With Destiny will screen on May 17 at 12noon in the Palais des Festivals' Lerins 2 theatre and will also be available for buyers to screen during at the newly created Doc Corner.
